About Caring Together

Three in five of us will become a carer at some point in our life. Caring Together is an ambitious regional charity that provides emotional and practical support, advice and guidance to carers of all ages and their families, as well as opportunities to take a break from their caring role.

Our vision is of a world where caring is made easier.

We believe in providing great care and connecting with the people we support.

We are proud to be a living wage employer and to have a clear career pathway for care workers to develop their experience and skills should you wish to progress.

Our care workers have permanent contracts and work a variety of adaptable hours that fit with client's requirements and your availability.

Minimum guaranteed hours contracts can be considered for applicants with a wide range and flexibility of available hours of work.

About the role

As part of the care team, your key focus will be providing a flexible service to people with care needs and their families, working within customers' homes to promote independence through greater choice and control. Support will involve personal and social care and support to achieve personal goals and positive outcomes.

Care workers work alongside colleagues in a similar role and a wider team providing information, advice and guidance to carers.

The successful candidate will be driven to provide high quality, person centred care at the times people would like it. They will work with people of all ages, with a range of conditions and requirements.

Key accountabilities of the role

1. Provide care support in the home and community.
2. Undertake the tasks specified in the care plan, adapting your practice to the preferences of the individual. For example, but not limited to washing, administering medication, assistance with the management of continence, support with eating and mouth care, support with mobility and transfers.
3. Occasional assistance with therapeutic programmes for rehabilitation and development as agreed with appropriate clinical professionals.
4. Ensure a safe environment in accordance with company policies and to communicate any changes which may affect the safety of the environment.
5. Support people to access their local community and events.
6. Provide emergency support and summon emergency services, if necessary.
7. Provide emotional support to people and their carers as part of a caring team.
8. Fulfil basic domestic duties as care package, such as: making and changing the bed of the person with care needs, essential laundering, essential shopping, preparing meals and washing up.
9. Undertake other specialised care tasks as agreed.
10. Work as part of a team, supporting colleagues and providing an adaptable service, including cover for colleagues in the event of holiday and sickness.
11. Travel as required in order to deliver person centred support. From time to time this may be outside of your area of preference.
12. Play a proactive role in signposting patients and families to relevant support services (internal, external; statutory, non-statutory), to prevent admissions.
13. Work in partnership with the care bookings team to ensure they are informed of requested changes to calls and give sufficient notice of any need to cancel.
14. Regularly review and refresh your rostered work and raise any queries or concerns in delivering it as soon as possible.
15. Be proactive in maintaining regular contact with your line manager.
16. Complete and submit clear, accurate records and reports to required standards.
17. Participate in an induction programme and attend on-going training.

18. Attend regular meetings and supervisions as agreed.
19. Establish positive working relationships internally and externally to support the company to achieve its business plan and meet customers outcomes.
20. Work at all times within the philosophy and policies of Caring Together.
21. Treat all people with respect and sensitivity, recognising the need for confidentiality at all times.
22. Undertake any other duties that may be considered commensurate with the level of the post.

Caring Together is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of vulnerable adults and children and expects staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

We are inclusive. We celebrate multiple approaches and points of view. We are an equal opportunities employer and expect staff to respect the personal choice and lifestyles of colleagues, carers, and people with care needs.
